

Basanta Maharjan, author and researcher, has expertise in Nepalese history, culture, archaeology and Buddhist study. Seven of his books on Buddhist Study have been authorised and except this subject he has published number of articles in different publications in various topics.

He has mastered in Buddhist study and is a gold medalist from Tribhuvan University. As well as, he has mastered in Nepalese history, culture and archaeology from same university. Currently he has been involved in research work on his subject and lectures on 'History of Buddhism' and 'Buddhist Approach in Human Right' in Lotus Academic College.

mail : maharjan_basanta@yahoo.com