

Karna Bahadur Maharjan

Born on 30 October 1960 in Nagaon, Kirtipur

Education: MA in Buddhist Studies and MA in Nepalese History, Culture and Archaeology from Tribhuvan University.

Currently: Lecturer at Lumbini Buddhist University, Programme Coordinator, Lumbini Buddhist University, Master Plan Drafting Committee (Feb 2015 to March 2017). Part-time teacher at National College of Travel and Tourism Management, Ratopul (Culture and Heritage Tourism) and Lotus Academic College, Khwaybahi, Lalitpur (Buddhist Studies).

Working Experience: Twenty years of working experience with Save the Children UK and Save the Children Sweden, Regional Offices based in Kathmandu in the field of information and resource centre management, information repackaging and dissemination, participatory video training, etc. He has also worked as freelance researcher and consultant for some time.

Seminar/workshops attended: More than two dozen seminars/training workshops at home and abroad, facilitated and/or led more than one dozen of training workshops on participatory video with diverse groups of children from South and Central Asia region and has produced more than one dozen of issue based documentaries on child rights, people with disability, gender issues, violence against women, etc.

Contact Address:

Sanla, Nagaon, Kirtipur 9, Kathmandu, Nepal.

Tel: 4330467(Res), 9851143365(Mobile)

Email: kbmaharjan.lbu@gmail.com